

THE SUE AND LEONARD MILLER
CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY JUDAIC STUDIES

THE GEORGE FELDENKREIS
PROGRAM IN JUDAIC STUDIES
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Co-sponsored with the 39th Alper JCC Berrin Family Jewish Book Festival
In Celebration of Women's History Month and Suffrage Centennial

Pamela S. Nadell

Winner of the Jewish Book of the Year for
America's Jewish Women

Jewish women have been in the forefront of fighting for suffrage, trade unions, civil rights, feminism, and Jewish rights around the world.

This groundbreaking history of how Jewish women maintained their identity and influenced social activism, examines the lives of influential American women: Grace Nathan and her great-granddaughter, poet Emma Lazarus; labor organizer Bessie Hillman; Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg and many others.

Sunday, March 1, 2020
11:00 AM

Alper JCC
11155 SW 112 Avenue
Miami, Florida 33176

For tickets and information call 305-271-9000 ext. 268 or visit alperjcc.org

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI

Admission: $10 to benefit the JCC